told them that I could - n't do with - out you!
wrote that I would like to know you bet - ter.

My heart was won — She What had I done? He You'd
I liked your smile... He How was my style? She Oh, giv - en me a look that went right through me! Peo-ple would wink:

you were quite the dap-per lit - tle chap - py. Liked you a heap:

She What did they think? He They thought that something fierce had happen'd to me!
He How did you sleep? She I slept im-mense, you see I was so hap-py!

REFRAIN

Take it from me, You are all I've wait-ed for, and more, and more! —

Take it from me, You are all that I a-dore, and more, and more! —

You're my i - dea, dear, Dear, dear, dear, of what one ought to be; — So when I — bring a wed-ding - ring, Well-well-well- take it from me! me! —
