Piano introduction in G major, 3/4 time. The music begins with a piano (p) dynamic. The right hand features a melody of eighth and quarter notes, while the left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment of quarter notes.

Slow - ly the day-light is fad - - - ing
Some - times when I'm all a - lone, dear,

The vocal line starts with a half rest, followed by a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

Soon 'twill be night-time a - gain Oh! how my heart will be Think - ing of days we once knew, Oft - - en it seems you are

The vocal line continues with a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line with eighth notes.

ach - - - ing, Ach - ing for you all in vain. Then near me Oh! how I wish it were true. But

The vocal line concludes with a melody of quarter and eighth notes. The piano accompaniment features a more active bass line with eighth notes.

CHORUS

dreams, just dreams of you, it seems That's all that's left for me..... Tears just tears, for the by - gone years, I must pay my pen - al - ty;..... "To err is but hu - man, for - give - ness, di - vine," But you don't seem to see it that way, hon - ey mine, And so dreams, just dreams of you, it seems That's all that's left for me..... me.....

Another Garton Waltz Hit

MY LITTLE BUTTERFLY

By HAROLD FREEMAN

We thought Harold Freeman had written one of the sweetest melodies we ever heard when he first played "MY LITTLE RAMBLING ROSE." However, we are sure you will agree with us that this new song is even prettier. It is one of those pleasing waltz melodies that everyone likes.

Try over the few lines of the chorus below:

REFRAIN

My Little Butterfly

You're just a lit - tle but - ter - fly, I watch you as you flut - ter by, A - drift on life's e - ter - nal sea, I'm pray - ing you'll come back to me. It
