Till Ready

I know a boy who is craz-y a-bout;
Each night he begs for that one lit-tle kiss,—

A cer-tain pet; It's two years since they've met, And he He's wild a-bout; He'll get that kiss no doubt, If his hasn't got her yet.— This lit-tle girl that he's craz-y a-bout; pat-ience don't wear out.— Day aft-er day he keeps tell-ing the boys,—

kind o' turned his head.'Cause when I asked him to de-scribe her; Here's what he said:—
what a gal he has, And when he's fin-ished they all hol-ler; "Cut out that jazz!"

Chorus

"She's just the kind of a miss.— That's worth while wait-ing for — She's got the kind of a kiss,— That's worth while wait-ing for;— She's al-ways bash-ful and shy—

— But when you whis-per "good bye;"— She puts that 'prom - is - ing look'— in her eye, that's worth while wait-ing for; She's got that won-der- ful smile— The amile that you a-dore;— She lets you squeeze her a white,— Then makes you beg for more;—

She's got the kind of pet-ting — the kind that's worth while get-ting, — And what's worth get - ting is worth while wait-ing for. — She's just the fo... —
